

Pekelo's

'Ukulele Lesson of the month

Aloha Kākou!

The June '05 issue featured an article by Dr. Kamuela Ka'Ahanui.

This lesson features a song composed by Kamuela for nā pua o Hawai'i.

Me ka hau'oli

♩ = 132

Eia Mākou

Track 1

F

C7

E-ia mā - kou nā pua o Ha-wai'i E-ia mā - kou nā Oh! Here we are, the children of Hawai'i Oh! Here we are, the

F

F7

Bb

keiki ho'o - ka - ni E-ia mā - kou nā a - la - ka'i nui Oli merry music makers Oh! Here we are, the leaders of tomorrow Come a -

F

C7

F

ē! Oli ē! No mā - kou! (Ua pau!)
long! And join in our song! (spoken)
(All pau!)

Music and Lyrics © 1980 Kamuela Ka'Ahanui

Used with Permission. All Rights Reserved

Kamuela is also a very accomplished pianist and bassist. And he plays the 'ukulele too! His favorite motto 'A'ohe pau 'ike i ka halau ho'okahi - "Not all knowledge comes from a single school" also applies for those who pursue studying music!

Aloha nui loa to all the 'ukulele players and folks I met in Eugene, OR in August!

Have fun playing your 'ukulele!

Pekelo