

Pekelo's

Ukulele Lesson of the month

Aloha Kākou!

This mele tells of the peaceful beauty unique to this island. Lānaʻi City is the only city and there still are no traffic lights here! At the height of its pineapple production, Lānaʻi produced 90% of the pineapples consumed in the United States.

Moderate

Intro: D7-G7-C

Lānaʻi He Manu Kīkaha

by R. Fong/ M. Nuʻuhiwa

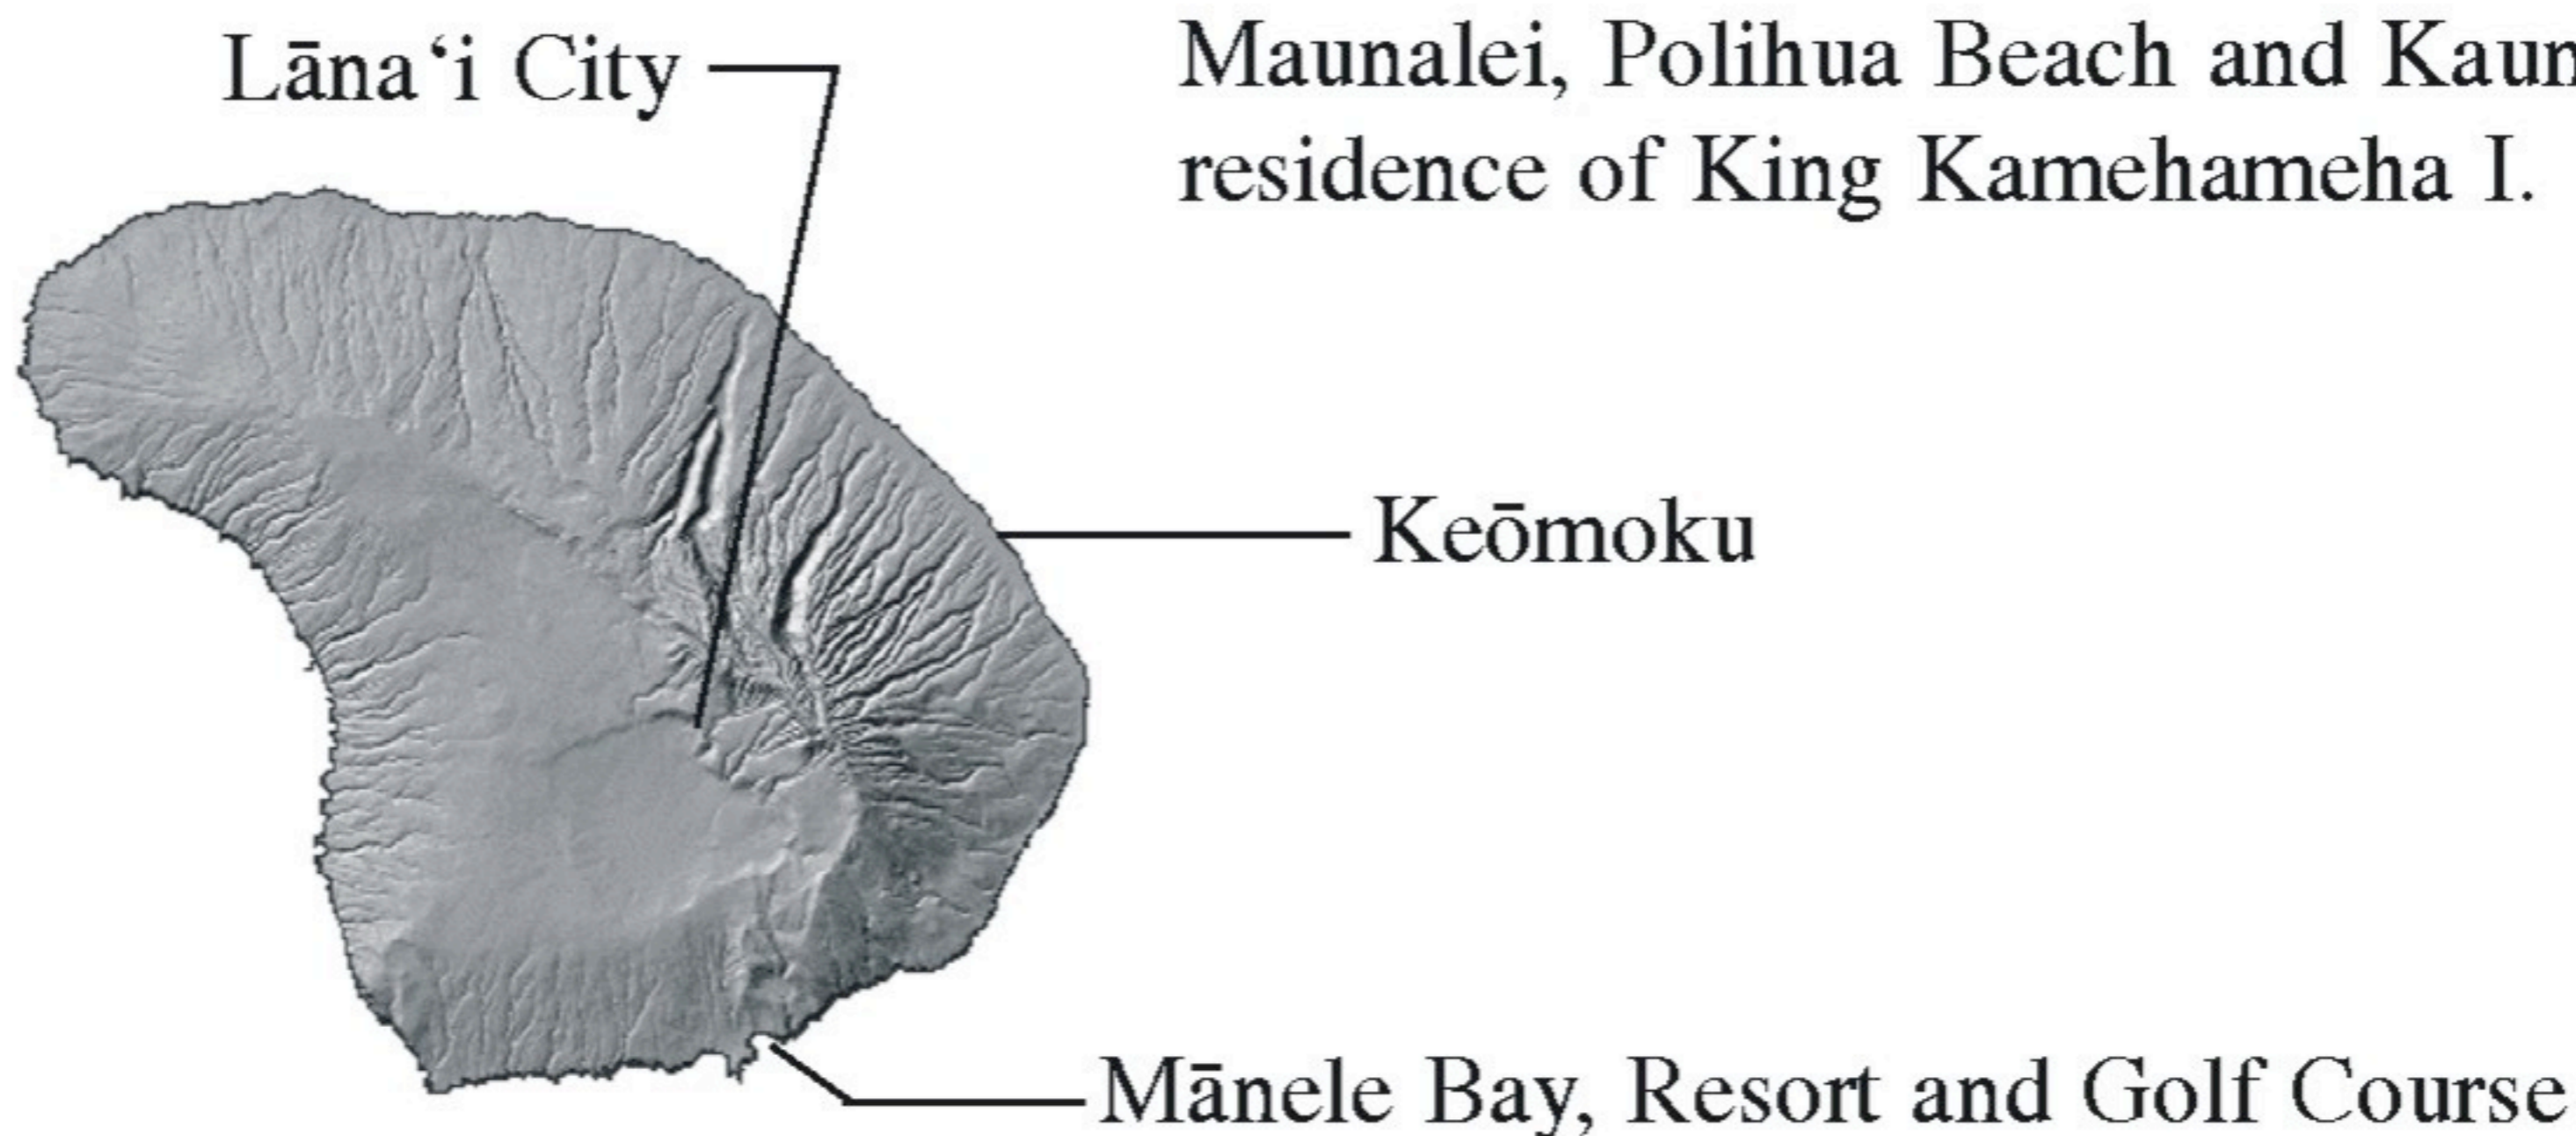

U- a la - 'i wale 'o - e e Lā - na - 'i

Me he ma - nu kī - ka - ha i ke 'a - le mā -

li - e

vs.1 Ua laʻi wale ʻoe e Lānaʻi You are so peaceful Lānaʻi
 Me he manu kīkaha Like a bird soaring
 I ke ʻale mālie On the crest of the waves

The remainder of the verses tell of the mist of Maunalei, Polihua Beach and Kaunolū, the summer residence of King Kamehameha I.

(140 square miles)

This mele and MP3 file can be heard on www.seattleukulele.org/lessons.

As a kid, I spent many summers here, visiting my ʻohana and playing at the beach and tidepools of Mānele Bay. Aloha to all the folks from Lānaʻi here in the Northwest! The next lesson takes us to the Barren Isle of Kahoʻolawe.

Have fun!

Pekelo

Lesson ʻUmi kūmāhā (Lesson 14)