

Bicycle in the Nude

Sung to the tune of Daisy Bell (Bicycle Built For Two) - key of F in 3/4 time

Words by Joel Eckhaus - <http://www.earnestinstruments.com>

Vamp: G7³ C7³ F⁶ (twice)

F Bb F
Daisy Daisy please, do not think I'm rude.

C7 F Dm G7 C
I'm goin' cra - zy over the sight of you.

C7 F Bb F
It isn't your pedals ti-tanium or the helmet on your cranium.

Chorus

C7 F C7 F C7 F
But you look sweet up-on the seat of a bicycle in the nude

F Bb F
When you mount your trusty steed made of steel

C7 F Dm G7 C
I just can't i--magin how it must feel

C7 F Bb F
The pleasure is just in knowing I can catch you coming and going

Chorus

F Bb F
Daisy Daisy what are your trying to do

C7 F Dm G7 C
Not so fast there, I can't keep up with you

C7 F Bb F
It's not that your legs aren't superior. But I pre-fer the view posterior

Chorus

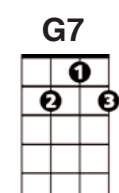

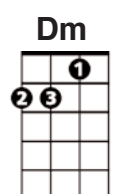

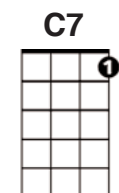

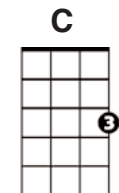

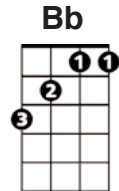

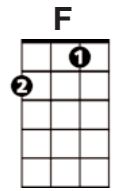

F Bb F
If I was a bicycle built for two

C7 F Dm G7 C
You could ride me whenever you wanted to

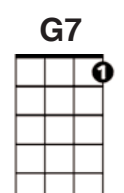

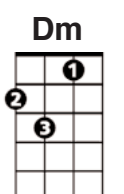

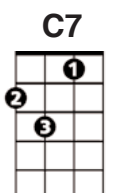

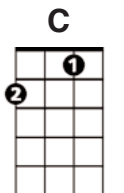

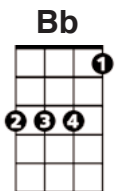

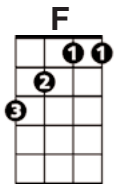

C7 F Bb F
My frame your legs would straddle. You could have you choice of saddle

Chorus

Soprano
G C E A

Baritone
D G B E

• keep'a uke'n - Brahda Pat •

Thanks Swanee for the chords!